NJLJ Ranks Porzio Governmental Affairs No. 6 in Top 10 NJ Lawyer/Lobbyist in 2009

TRENTON, NJ – March 25, 2010 – At a relatively young age, lobbying firm of Porzio Governmental Affairs, LLC (“PGA”), founded in 2006, is now ranked sixth in total fees of lobbying firms associated with a law firm, according to prominent legal weekly newspaper, New Jersey Law Journal (“NJLJ”), on March 11, 2010. NJLJ obtained revenues of registered lobbyists in New Jersey from the Election Law Enforcement Commission report released on March 10, 2010. The report puts PGA at Number 18 for revenues for overall lobbying entities in New Jersey.

PGA moved up in ranking from NJLJ’s lawyer lobbying firm list in 2008 from the tenth position. That same year, PGA merged with Nancy H. Becker Associates, enabling the combined firm to have a stronger presence in the governmental affairs arena. Porzio Governmental Affairs is the lobbying subsidiary of Porzio, Bromberg and Newman P.C., a law firm with over 90 lawyers representing businesses and individuals across a wide variety of practice areas, including governmental affairs.
