Sal M. Anderton, Esq. is Legislative Director for Porzio Governmental Affairs. Mr. Anderton’s background includes serving as legislative counsel for the New Jersey Department of Labor and for a Democratic member of the New Jersey General Assembly. In each position, he was responsible for drafting and monitoring relevant legislative and regulatory developments. At PGA he provides strategic legislative and regulatory counsel to many of the firm’s business clients across a wide range of sectors including financial, insurance, professional service, health care and gaming.

Mr. Anderton has been an attorney in private practice, concentrating on environmental and land use matters as well as tort law. He served as the attorney for the West Orange Planning Board and has represented applicants and objectors in a variety of residential and commercial land use applications and related litigation.

Mr. Anderton has been active in his community in a variety of capacities, having served for more than 10 years as a member of the Executive Committee of the Essex County March of Dimes, the Executive Board of the John Renna Senior Citizen Housing Complex and Chairman of the West Orange Open Space Commission. He currently is serving his first term as a member of the West Orange Township Council. In addition, he has taught undergraduate Political Science and Law courses at Montclair State University.

Mr. Anderton received B.S. degrees in Political Science and Philosophy from Montclair State University as a student in the University’s Honors Program. While at Montclair, he served one year as President of the Student Government Association and two years as the student member of the University Board of Trustees. He read Rhetoric and Political Philosophy at St. Anne’s College, Oxford, England for one trimester as part of the University Honors Program study abroad program.

Mr. Anderton earned his J.D. degree from Seton Hall University School of Law in 1998 where he served as a tutor to first year law students. He was published in both the Seton Hall Legislative Law Journal and the Seton Hall Law Review. Mr. Anderton is admitted to the bar of the states of New Jersey and New York and the bar of the United States District Court for the District of New Jersey. He is a member of the New Jersey Bar Association and the Essex County Bar Association.
