Ann Barzda is a Legislative Analyst at Porzio Governmental Affairs. Her responsibilities include working with the firm's lobbyists to research, identify and monitor legislation that is relevant to the firm's clients. Most recently, she worked for Nancy H. Becker Associates where she tracked legislation and was responsible for setting up client meetings with legislators and other government agencies.

Ms. Barzda has many years of experience providing administrative support to executives in both the private and public sector, including Assemblyman Herb Conaway, MD, and Assemblyman Jack Conners. She had primary responsibility for coordinating their schedules, working with constituents and performing other day-to-day legislative duties as needed.

Ms. Barzda has participated in a variety of campaigns, local and national, in support of Democratic candidates. She was also a Committeewoman in her hometown and continues to participate in local activities.

Ms. Barzda is a graduate of Rutgers University-Douglass College, with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Theater Arts. She is currently working towards an Associate Degree in Political Science from Burlington County College.
